Domestic Violence

If you or someone you care about is in a domestic violence situation and you need to locate shelter, please call:

For additional resources, please call one of the Community Information and Referral numbers listed on page 2.

If you are in an emergency situation, call 9-1-1 or a crisis line at the agency of your choice.

Services, Shelters, Safe Homes, and Advocacy Resources

Program Description
There are many services and agencies providing services to victims of domestic violence and their children to help them transition out of violent situations. Domestic violence programs are different at each shelter or agency. Services which may be provided include:

• Shelters/Safe Homes
• Shelter Referral
• Counseling Services
• Counseling Referral Services
• Services for Women and Children
• Transitional Housing
• Legal Advocacy/Services
• Advocacy/Case Management

Additional services may be available depending on the agency you contact.

Eligibility Information
Anyone who is in a domestic violence situation, or is concerned about a friend or family member, can contact these agencies for advice and services.

Where to Apply
For more information, please contact the agency/shelter of your choice in your area. Some agencies and shelters do not publish their location for the safety of their clients. The following is a list of the domestic violence agencies, shelters and safe home programs throughout Arizona, as well as a list of the services they provide. Some agencies/shelters provide services for specific populations; in these cases the populations served are listed below. Some domestic violence shelters can house homeless individuals or families, depending on availability.

Family Advocacy Centers listed below provide a comprehensive range of services to victims of domestic and sexual violence, and their families, in a safe, comforting and supportive environment.
